Limassol

The descendant to two ancient city kingdoms, Curium to the west and Amathus to the east Limassol, is frequently referred to as the venue of the royal wedding in the middle ages where Richard the Lionheart married Berengaria of Navarre and crowned her Queen of England in 1191.

Today centrally located, on the south coast Limassol is the Islands second largest city and truly cosmopolitan with a choice of world class hotels lining the coast. Home, to the Islands main wine producers and festivals, Limassol is famous for its wine festival in September and the spring Carnival with its traditional parade before Easter. Its strategic geographical location and excellent infrastructure, including major road networks and two international ports make it the trade hub of the south eastern Mediterranean. Excellent shopping can be found in the picturesque quarter of the old town, along with theatres, restaurants and bars. Alternatively there is a seven mile stretch of sea front including a choice of beaches.

Paphos

Paphos with its charming harbour lined with fishing boats, pleasure craft, open air cafes, tavernas and a medieval fort combines a truly cosmopolitan holiday resort, spectacular country side and historical sites. Home, to the Islands second international airport, with a picturesque old town offering a great selection of shops make it a particularly good choice. Paphos remains a thriving holiday destination for holiday makers and residents alike. Ancient Capital of Cyprus Paphos in its entirety is included in UNESCO list of cultural and natural treasures of world heritage.

The increasingly popular area of Coral Bay can be found just 12 km away from the centre of Paphos, offering a superb beach, fine hotel accommodation and a good selection of bars and restaurants.

Cyprus is rapidly obtaining a reputation as the latest 'place for golfers. If you are keen to experiment or enjoy a few rounds there are 3 world class 18-hole courses only a short drive from Paphos.
